

Perminder Sachdev, MB BS, MD, PhD, FRANZCP

Present:

- Professor of Neuropsychiatry, School of Psychiatry, UNSW, 1999-present
- Clinical Director, Neuropsychiatric Institute, The Prince of Wales Hospital, 1987-present
- Fellow, Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists
- Member of many professional societies and committees
- President-elect, International Neuropsychiatric Association (to serve as President in 2004-2006)
- Convenor, Biennial Congress of the International Neuropsychiatric Association, 2006.
- Editor-in-Chief of the forthcoming book series “Neuropsychiatry and Behavioural Neurology” (publishers Francis & Taylor)
- Research collaboration with the Mood Disorders Unit began in 1987 and is presently focussed on neuroimaging studies and the treatment of resistant psychiatric disorders with transcranial magnetic stimulation.
- Medical Adviser and Founding Executive Member of the Tourette Syndrome Association of Australia since 1989.

Principal areas of expertise:

- Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation
- Proton Magnetic Resonance Spectroscopy
- Functional Magnetic Resonance Imaging